Itinerary:

DAY 1 ARRIVAL IN SEATTLE

Arrive in Seattle, WA by 5:00 pm. Your Tour Director will be available at the hotel from 1:00 - 6:00 pm to assist with information. Tonight, enjoy a welcome drink hosted by our Tour Director.

DAY 2 SEATTLE - TACOMA

Today's Seattle sightseeing tour includes Pike Place Market, the Space Needle, and Seattle's Underground tour. We will also take a tour of one of Seattle's coffee roasting plants on our way to Tacoma. Our first stop in Tacoma is the Museum of Glass and the new Tacoma Art Museum with its incredible display of Chihuly glass. This evening we gather for a group dinner enjoying the view of the Olympic Mountains rising above Commencement Bay. (B, D)

DAY 3 TACOMA - CHEHALIS

This morning we start out at Northwest Trek's Wildlife Park for a look at what we might see along the road today. Northwest Trek is a 600 acre facility featuring animals native to the Pacific Northwest, roaming free while we look at them from an enclosed tram. Now we head for the hills - Mt. Rainier. This is the highest mountain in Washington State at 14,410 feet. We will enjoy a late lunch at Paradise Inn before heading southwest to Chehalis. Topping off this long day we will have dinner at the historic Mary McCrank's Restaurant. (B, L, D)

DAY 4 CHEHALIS - OCEAN SHORES

Heading south we enter Mt. St. Helens country. We start out at the Cinedome Theater where we watch the 1980 eruption on a three-story, 60-foot wide screen. We continue to the Coldwater Ridge Visitor Center where you will have a spectacular view of the crater and lava dome of Mt. St. Helens which is still 7 miles away. Back at the interstate we will head for the Pacific Ocean and Ocean Shores where we spend tonight. (B)

DAY 5 OCEAN SHORES - PORT TOWNSEND

This morning's route takes us to the edges of the Quinault, Queets and Hoh Rain Forests as well as the Quinault, Hoh and Quileute Indian Reservations. Then we are on our way to Hurricane Ridge which is located 5,200 feet above sea level with tremendous views of the Olympic Mountains, the Strait of Juan de Fuca and Vancouver Island. We'll stop for the day when we reach our comfortable hotel. (B)

DAY 6 PORT TOWNSEND - SEATTLE

After a leisurely start, we will continue south to the Bremerton ferry landing and enjoy a typical Pacific Northwest afternoon with views of water, mountains, city and islands. We check in at our Seattle hotel this afternoon before we get ready for a 4-hour cruise to Tillicum Village located on Blake Island. There, we will enjoy salmon cooked Indian-style and a spectacular stage show. (B, D)
